

Neurology Technician

We are looking for an experienced technician responsible for duties such as assisting our neurologists with receiving of new patients, patient care for hospitalized patients, performing anesthesia and willing to learn how to perform CT and MRI scans.

We are looking for someone with excellent communication skills with clients, with extensive anesthesia and patient care experience, with great attention to detail, and who is a team player and likes to work within an experienced group of technicians and doctors.

Skills:

Individual department teams exist within the structure of technicians. Technician duties will vary from department to department, however include general technician duties such as:

- Advanced nursing care and treatment of patients
- Administering and monitoring anesthesia
- Assisting the veterinarian in procedures
- Admitting and discharging patients
- Client communication and education

Qualifications:

- Must have current certification or licensing as a veterinary technician
- Is reliable, organized, and provides a high level of care to our patients and our clients
- Will act as a representative of the hospital at all times, displaying consideration, courtesy, compassion, and professionalism in all interactions

Benefits of working at Wheat Ridge Animal Hospital by Ethos:

- We work in a caring and supportive environment in a geographic location that offers an outstanding quality of life
- Compensation is highly competitive
- Full-time benefits include paid time off, health, dental, vision, disability and life insurances, 401k, association dues, wellness care and pet insurance for your pets, CE allowance, uniform allowance, and more.
- Additional benefits and support for VTS candidates.
- Take advantage of our flexible work schedules and excellent shift differential pay

Physical demands:

Regular job duties may require:

- Standing – frequently during the course of the day
- Bending, squatting, and kneeling – repeatedly during the course of the day
- Pushing and pulling up to 20 pounds – frequently during the course of the day
- Sitting – occasionally during the course of the day
- Lifting and restraining up to 50 pounds without assistance – frequently during the course of the day
- Lifting and restraining up to 100 + pounds with assistance – frequently during the course of the day

Apply Here: <http://www.Click2Apply.net/5b3qzpbfbhh7gm4>

PI102101697