

LEAD SURGICAL TECHNICIAN

Are you looking for an engaging, fast paced work environment where patient care and continuous learning are paramount? Come enjoy the culture and excitement of our hospital located in Dedham, Massachusetts. We provide a constant learning environment with boarded specialists and certified, experienced nursing staff.

Essential Functions and Responsibilities:

- Advanced nursing skills, patient care and compassion
- Assist surgeons with appointments (orthopedic radiographs, bandage changes, suture removals)
- Maintain and troubleshoot equipment
- Constantly advance your knowledge base and skill set
- Assist with training of new staff and assist other departments as needed

Skills and Qualifications:

- CVT, RVT, or LVT
- Four years of surgical veterinary experience.
- Knowledge and understanding of veterinary procedures and disease related to surgical procedures.
- Advanced anesthesia and analgesia experience.
- Excellent communication skills, time management, ability to problem solve, learn and handle multiple tasks.
- Ability to anticipate and be detail oriented due to high level of patient care.
- Must be an enthusiastic team player with a patient, and positive professional attitude.
- Must be able to lift and restrain pets of at least 50 pounds and work on feet most of the day.

Why BVS?

Benefits include excellent wages, paid vacations and holidays, health, vision and dental insurance, short term disability insurance, Simple IRA, in-house continuing education and a generous continuing education allowance for local and national conferences.

Please submit a resume and cover letter to recruiting@capecodvetspecialists.com indicating how you feel you are a fit for our position and include your compensation requirements.

To apply, visit www.bostonvetspecialists.com/employment

