

LVT/ VTS salary $40,000- $50,000/ year. This is a full time hourly wage or salaried position.

About Wasatch Animal Clinic: Our practice is located in Heber City, Utah. We are a 3-4 doctor practice with 15-20 support staff. We offer everything from dentistry, soft tissue and orthopedic surgery, internal medicine, and ultrasound. We also put a large emphasis on general wellness.

Position Available: Lead/Head Managing Technician- We are looking for a leader who can organize and build a great team of technicians. Main responsibility would be to provide the practice with high quality technician support.

Duties and Expectations:

- Scheduling, training, managing, and hiring technicians
- Working closely with doctors, office manager and inventory manager
- Maintenance and management of medical equipment
- Setting up and overseeing protocols in anesthesia, dentistry, surgical prep and surgical assisting.
- Overseeing and managing facility cleaning
- Overseeing and managing client communication and appointment assisting protocols

Minimum Qualifications:

- LVT or RVT required. Ideal candidate would have VTS in anesthesia or dentistry
- 2-3 years management (head tech or lead tech) experience recommended
- 2-3 years of teaching or training experience recommended
- Dental radiograph positioning proficiency is required
- Comprehensive understanding and experience in anesthesia is required
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Client communication and good bedside manner required
- Proactive thinker and ability to make and implement changes
- Adding new and exciting services is welcomed

Benefits:

Hourly wage or Salary considered - Paid time off - Paid continuing education -Health Insurance - Uniform stipend – Flexible Hours

Send resume to - whansen@wasatchanimal.com