

The Animal Medical Center in New York, NY is looking for Licensed Veterinary Technicians to assist during patient care in multiple departments.

QUALIFICATIONS

- NYS Veterinary Technician's license (or valid permit)
- Ability to handle and restrain all species of animal
- Able to lift 50 pounds
- Work successfully as part of a team, interacting successfully with clients and co-workers
- Must have ability to follow detailed directions and established protocols as well as work independently and proactively
- Bend or kneel when helping with patient restraint and not mind getting wet
- Basic computer skills and be able to correctly complete all necessary paperwork
- Must have flexibility necessary to work weekends, holidays and additional hours as needed

OPEN POSITIONS

- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Surgical Nursing Rehabilitation (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician - Surgical/Oncological Nursing (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician - Surgical Nursing - Team Leader (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Manager of Surgery (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Special Care Unit (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Emergency & Critical Care (Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Neurology(Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician – Surgical Nursing Anesthesia Technician (Float/Full Time)
- Licensed Veterinary Technician - Assistant Director of Oncology (Full Time)

Please check out our Employment Opportunities at www.amcny.org for detailed job descriptions.

The Animal Medical Center offers excellent benefits including medical/dental insurance, tuition assistance, retirement plan, pet care discounts and more.

Interested and qualified candidates should apply with a resume/application and cover letter to careers@amcny.org or fax 212-758-8157.