

Seeking VTS – with Anesthesia Credentials to join our veterinary surgery team!

Veterinary Referral Surgical Practice (VRSP) offers a stimulating and challenging opportunity to gain experience and grow in the veterinary field.

VRSP is seeking a full time VTS with anesthesia certification for our multi-location practice in the northern suburbs of Atlanta. Our practice specializes in surgery, advanced diagnostic imaging, and rehabilitation. We are focused on personalized care of patients from injury to recovery. Candidates must have demonstrated ability to build positive, professional relationships with clients and staff members. If you have a keen interest in providing training and leadership while collaborating closely with our team of surgeons, technicians, and veterinary assistants in surgery on a day-to-day basis, we would be extremely interested in learning more about your goals. Candidates must have a Georgia license or be eligible to obtain Georgia license.

Great hours, new hire bonus, top compensation offered, health insurance, CE assistance, uniform allowance, and retirement benefits. Relocation assistance is available.

If you do not currently reside in Atlanta, make this vibrant city your new hometown. Take advantage of the culture, mild-year-round climate, and outdoor activities this wonderful area has to offer!
