

PET SPECIALISTS OF AUSTIN

$5,000 Sign On Bonus! This position is located in Austin, Texas.

Pet Specialists of Austin is now hiring a Full- Time Lead Veterinary Technician to join their INCREDIBLE team!

We offer an amazing benefits package that includes health, dental, vision, life, 401k, PTO, paid parental leave, amazing pets benefit, and much more!

The lead veterinary technician is not only responsible for providing all veterinary nursing duties in the hospital but also provides direction to veterinary technicians and assistants. The lead technician should be knowledgeable in a wide variety of areas and is able to train staff in these areas including client service, communication, clinical pathology, radiology, animal nursing care, anesthesia, surgical assistance, emergency medicine, among others. The lead technician is expected to uphold the hospitals core values while maintaining professional composure.

The Ideal Candidate:

- Associate degree in Veterinary Technology preferred
- Credentials (RVT, CVT, LVT) preferred
- Prior supervisory/management experience preferred.
- 3-5 years previous experience as a veterinary assistant or technician
- Prior customer service experience required.

Core Job Duties:

- Performs administrative duties such as: training, scheduling, documented coaching.

Apply Here: <https://www.click2apply.net/G7ExkYTPnyayhEngHqkwR>

PI142698123